

YOUR PERSONALISED RE-BRAND CONCEPTS

We know you that you understand the importance of providing a professional service to your patients & the challenges that come with running a business with so much competition in the market. To grow your practice & be profitable, it is these same high standards that potential new patients will expect to see in your brand and marketing.

At Funky Vibes we believe in really getting to know you & your business, so that we become an extended part of your team. We work with you to create & deliver marketing that helps you to achieve your goals. To make your life easy we provide the full range of marketing services including graphic design, videography & photography, website design, social media management & branding, so you only have to work with one team.

As we like to let our skills do the talking, we have had a little play with your branding. The designs below are just a taster of what we could do to help you develop and strengthen your practice's brand and marketing strategy.
